

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE CFWA CONSTITUTION

The CFWA Board resolved to recommend the following changes to this AGM:

Clause 11.2.1, Clause 11.15 Changes regarding Board tenure

Amended to provide that Board members shall be subject to maximum tenure (a limit of 6 years served as a Board member). Provision is made to enable this to be extended in exceptional circumstances with member agreement.

It is good practice to apply a maximum period to the time individuals may serve on the Board, to ensure sufficient renewal/ introduction of new skills, expertise and thinking. For this reason, the existing Board has carefully considered an appropriate period of tenure and the provisions needed to ensure it is practicable. For example, exceptional circumstances could apply where the Board believes a special skill or role that a Board member brings cannot be readily replaced.

It is proposed that 6 years tenure will apply to all new Board members. Tenure helps ensure the Board maintains a good balance of organisational knowledge and fresh perspective. Succession planning enables knowledge transfer from longer serving Board members to newer members on an ongoing basis.

The CFWA Board will undertake succession and recruitment planning on a regular basis to support ongoing management of related changes. Existing Board members will consider their own tenure as an input to future succession planning.

Clause 12.3. Change to closing time for nominations for elected Board members.

The only proposed change is increasing closing time from 36 to 48 hours before the AGM.

The additional time enables preparation of information and voting processes in the event the number of nominations necessitates an election be held.

Clause 14 Revision to reference to Associations Incorporation Act 2015.

Revision to align with the respective Division of the Act

The obligations of Board members are those set out in Division 2 of the Act. This includes both Section 42 and Section 43.

Clause 23.1 Indemnities

Revised to reflect legal limits on indemnification.

This clause refers to indemnification of Board members, the CEO and other CFWA employees related to discharge of duties. The revision reflects that some legislation specifically prohibits such indemnification. For example, CFWA cannot indemnify officers for certain fines applicable under the revised WA work health and safety laws.
